Plaintiff(s), vs.

HEINZ DUNTON

Defendant(s),

ORDER GRANTING/DENYING PLAINTIFF'S/DEFENDANT'S MOTION

THIS CAUSE having come on to be heard on December 2, 2013
on Plaintiff's Defendant's Motion

For contempt, etc

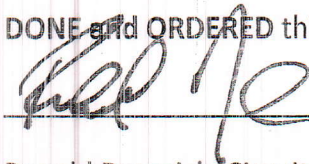

and the Court having heard arguments of counsel, and being otherwise advised in the premises, it is hereupon

ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that said Motion be, and the same is hereby

D. This matter came to be heard on the Plaintiff's motion for contempt and sanctions against the Defendant. The Court is denying the Motion as this Court's jurisdiction is limited by the First Amendment from continuing to hold the defendant in contempt and/ or to impose further sanctions on the defendant for his continuing to publish Derogatory remarks and comments about the Plaintiff. The Court enters this Order being mindful of the fact that the Defendant had accepted a significant sum of money in exchange for his agreement to cease from such publication. The Court is further mindful of the fact that this has been an ongoing course of conduct by the Defendant who is on some kind of vendetta against the Plaintiff. This Court has over the past eight years held the Defendant in contempt at least four times and has imposed monetary sanctions against the Defendant for this very same conduct.

Each time the Court has imposed a sanction or held the Defendant in contempt the Court did so with a feeling of utter discomfort. The Court is of the opinion that enough is enough and that if the Plaintiff wishes any other relief it consider rescinding the agreement and seek the return of its money since it is obvious that the Defendant is incapable of upholding his end of the agreement.

DONE and ORDERED this 2d day of December, 2013.
